SENIOR CARE

Surowitz

Los Angeles Jewish Home (LAJH) - One of the nation's largest providers of comprehensive senior care, LAJH welcomes Dale Surowitz as its newest CEO and president. He succeeds Molly Forrest, who led LAJH for nearly 25 years of dynamic growth and development. Surowitz will leverage the expertise he built as CEO of Providence Cedars-Sinai Tarzana Medical Center to fuel LAJH's continued expansion, while Forrest transitions to a new role as president of the Jewish Home Foundation.

ACCOUNTING

Brown

Green Hasson Janks (GHJ) welcomes Peter Brown, CPA, CFF, ABV, as a new partner and practice leader of Forensic Services. With nearly three decades of forensic accounting experience, as well as extensive experience quantifying damages in commercial litigation and internal investigations, Brown will be an integral driver of growth for GHJ's advisory service offerings.

Passionate about helping clients #BeMore, Brown has served as a litigation consultant and expert witness in numerous disputes.

"His expertise will help us to even better serve our clients," GHJ Partner and Advisory Practice Leader Anant Patel said.

NON-PROFIT

Susskind

AMANDA SUSSKIND NAMED NEW PRESIDENT OF CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS FOUNDATION (CRF)

Amanda Susskind joins CRF as their new President following nearly two decades as the Los Angeles Regional Director of the Anti-Defamation League where she oversaw a broad civil rights agenda, anti-bias education and bullying prevention programs, Holocaust education, and hate crime victim assistance. In that role, Susskind conceived and convened LA For Good, a coalition of community leaders standing together to fight hate and create a more unified Los Angeles. She was also a leading voice advocating for ADL to take national positions on gender equity, LGBTQ rights, and immigration reform. Prior to ADL, Susskind specialized in public and environmental law as a partner at Weston, Benshoof, Rochefort, Rubalcava & MacCuish and, before that, a shareholder at Richards, Watson & Gershon. She earned a JD from Hastings College of the Law and a BS in Mathematics from Stanford University. Susskind succeeds Marshall Croddy who was a major contributor at CRF for over 40 years serving as President since 2013. Susskind will bring her background in social justice, law and education to continue CRF's legacy of creating the next generation of active and engaged citizens. CRF's mission is to educate students, primarily in underserved areas, about what citizenship means, to empower them to be active participants in this democracy, and to amplify their voices in being thoughtful agents of change.

INFRASTRUCTURE

Kraman

Michael Kraman, PE, rejoined HNTB Corporation as West Division transportation project director and senior vice president. He is based in HNTB's Santa Ana office. Kraman's career in transportation spans more than three decades, including serving six years as CEO for the Transportation Corridors Agencies.

"Mike is well-known for his accomplishments and contributions within the transportation industry. As the former leader of a toll authority, he brings a unique perspective as he rejoins our firm," said Wayne Feuerborn, HNTB West Division president and senior vice president.

In this role, Kraman serves as a strategic advisor for HNTB project delivery teams to support key clients and encourage technical excellence. He represents the firm in professional and civic organizations, and provides mentoring and coaching to both the firm and the industry.

Kraman brings more than 30 years of experience in the planning, design and management of major civil and transportation engineering projects. During his career, he has delivered complex public works projects including state highways, rail and port facilities.
